A romantic couple is seen from behind, sitting on a white vintage-style motorcycle. The man is wearing a light pink t-shirt and jeans, and the woman is wearing a striped crop top and light-colored pants. They are looking out over a body of water under a soft, hazy sky. The motorcycle is parked on a sandy beach. The text 'Love Happiness & Joy' is overlaid in a large, elegant blue script font, with each word on a separate line and a semi-transparent yellow rectangular background behind the text.

EXCLUSIVE RETREATS INSIDE ♥

Dear Loved One:

I am excited to share with you how you can learn the secrets to transform your marriage from a good one to a truly extraordinary one - in just a short time! And, how you can do this and still enjoy a relaxed get-away at the same time!

My name is Kim Von Berg - and I am a Communication Strategist & Relationship Expert. I have created a cutting edge powerful training for couples that gleams the gems from my twenty years of working with couples. This powerful retreat is transformational to couples! And, we will help you to enjoy the learning process. I will be presenting to you my unique & powerful communication skills - as well as guide you & your beloved to go beyond techniques to step into a “whole & complete ME,” so that a solid “WE” can flourish.

Couples come to the Miraculous Communication™ : 3 Steps to Create an Extraordinary Relationship retreats with one or more of the following challenges:

- 1) There is either no connection or interactions are very negative
- 2) Sex has disappeared
- 3) The same sources of argument keep resurfacing ad infinitum
- 4) Both are carrying lots of resentment, anger & hurt
- 5) The trust has been broken
- 6) The love seems to have almost disappeared

This is what many of our participants say after participating in the retreat:

- 1) Great inner healing has occurred so that we can see one another in a whole new light
- 2) We now communicate and understand one another deeply
- 3) We enjoy sex regularly now - and in a whole new way. We connect intimately on all levels
- 4) I have stopped blaming my partner for the missing love and respect that I now know how to give myself
- 5) Boundaries are good and healthy - and we each now know how to set these without damaging the relationship
- 6) We have created a beautiful vision for our partnership and lives - and are taking action to bring about this vision

Here are just a few stories from participants in previous Miraculous Communication™ : 3 Steps to Create an Extraordinary Relationship retreats (& I have changed their names to protect their anonymity) :

(1) Jackson had been working with me privately - and was having marital challenges. He is a forty-two year old CEO of a corporation - and would often put in an 80 hr work week.

Eventually, he & his wife came to see me together. His wife, Marie, was feeling very neglected. There was a lot of resentment toward each other. (For one thing, Marie wanted to have children - but there was never the time to relax and focus on having this happen.) They had tried three different marriage counselors before they came to me. When they started working with me, they were seriously considering divorce. But then, I suggested they take my one week retreat before they make any decisions.

Jackson & Marie came to my one week retreat in Monterey, CA, two years ago. Because they knew that divorce could not only be damaging to themselves & for all of their mutual relationships, but it could be very costly financially.

So, they participated wholeheartedly in the trainings - and took advantage of the fun and romantic activities scheduled between the trainings. And, on day four, something unbelievable happened... Both began to feel the same love & adoration that they had when they first met. Well no. Actually, they felt these feelings much more intensely in the retreat! And, they took on really learning & practicing the skills that I teach to be able to maintain this new found level of connection that was born. And, I heard from Jackson just before these past holidays that their relationship is stronger than ever ...and, Marie is now six months' pregnant with a baby boy!

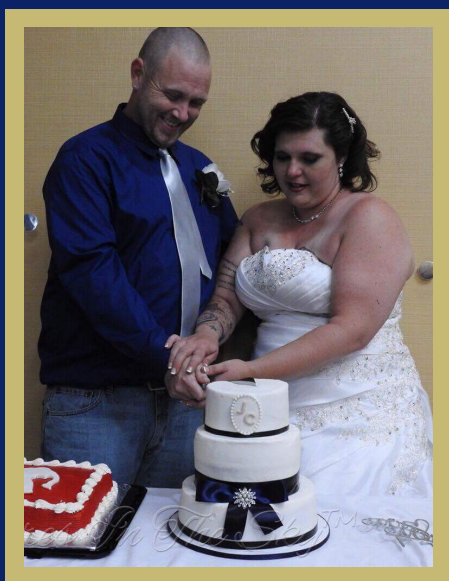

(II) Amy came to me as a 30-year-old widow. She had had some terrible experiences in her subsequent relationships after the death of her husband. After a few months of working with Amy privately, she decided to come to my singles “Love Is Possible No Matter What!” retreat. The retreat guides people how to access the core of what has been subconsciously preventing them from healthy happy love & completely eliminate these obstacles.

Amy had an amazing breakthrough in this retreat, discovering that she had been carrying around a false sense of self as unwanted.

Not only did she realize how very wanted she was by all of life, but she realized that quality single men would see her great value and be magnetized to her.

Within a month after this retreat, Amy met James. They took their time to get to know one another. And, I received an invitation to their wedding this past August. Amy and James are truly happy together. They let me know that they plan to attend the next MC Couples retreat in their area just to make sure their partnership continues to thrive!

(III) Joy & Brandon came to me last year on the brink of divorce. They had begun a business together that is a great success internationally - but their relationship was greatly suffering. They had been married for 35 years & their three kids were grown. I convinced them to come join my week-long retreat.

Within only a day of the retreat, they began to communicate as they “had never done in thirty-five years.” (I am quoting Brandon.) Suddenly, they saw one another in a whole new light - and came to appreciate the differences. And now, they truly enjoy each other’s company. I just heard from Joy that they have now decided to retire next year - and look forward to their plans to cycle across the European continent together!

Come join us for our next Miraculous Communication™ : 3 Steps to Create an Extraordinary Relationship retreat in Florida: August 3 - 9th, 2018!
